

Snowstorm

Wake up in the morning there is a snowstorm outside and I said, "I'm going back to sleep!"
Few minutes later woke up again there is pancakes and bacon waiting for me to eat them.

The brown pancakes are frayed and the burnt bacon how I like it nice and crunchy crunch crunch Biting into crunchy bason then going to eat the pancake

The pillow is soft like a pillow.

Then going outside in the cold snowstorm
And the snow is white as a cloud snowing hard like winning the lottery

Going skiing into the powder its cold
